

Wojciech Myślecki

Doctor of Engineering, he has worked for many years as an academic in the Electronics Department of the Wrocław University of Science and Technology, lecturer at the Postgraduate College "Intelligent Electric Grids", author of several dozen academic and scientific publications on telecommunications, industrial IT, and political and economic issues.

Between 1968 and 1989 an activist in the Polish democratic opposition.

After 1989 he participated in reorganizing the management of the Wrocław University of Science and Technology and in implementing new modern postgraduate fields of study in English and French. He combines his scientific and academic work with activities in the economy. He has several times been chairman of the management boards of large commercial companies, including of Polskie Sieci Elektroenergetyczne S.A. (Polish Electricity Grid) in 1998. He has been the chairman or a member of many supervisory boards, including of Tauron PE S.A., KGHM PM S.A., PSE S.A., PTE Generali S.A. He managed or participated in many important Polish and international economic programs, in particular in the area of electric energy. Currently, chairman of the management board of Global Investment Corporation sp. z o.o. (a consulting company) and Chairman of the Advanced Technologies for the Energy Generation Team at the NCRD.