

Dr Cezary A. Banasiński

CURRICULUM VITAE

Born on 28 November 1953 in Sochaczew (Poland), Polish citizen.

EDUCATION:

UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW

Master's degree in organization theory, after completing studies at the Faculty of Management – 1977

UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW

Master's degree in law, after completing legal studies at the Faculty of Law and Administration – 1980

UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW

Doctor of law degree – 1987

1988 – 1st place in a prestigious competition organised by the monthly magazine “Państwo i Prawo” for the best doctoral thesis of 1987

PROFESSIONAL WORK:

President of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection – from September 2001; responsible for the state of competition on the Polish market and the legal protection of consumers, as well as for monitoring the granting of state aid.

Member of the Polish Securities and Exchange Commission – from February 2006; adjudication on the basis of regulations on trading in financial instruments and supervising the capital market.

Member of the Commission for Insurance and Pension Fund Supervision – from May 2006; the Commission's activities include adjudicating on matters specified in the provisions of the Act on Employee Pension Programmes and the Act on the Organisation and Operation of Pension Funds.

Member of the Coordinating Committee for Financial Conglomerations – from May 2006; appointed on the basis of regulations on supplementary supervision of credit institutions, insurance companies and investment firms forming part of a financial conglomeration.

Head of the team negotiating Poland's membership in the EU, responsible for the “competition policy” negotiating area – 2002-2004.

Under-secretary of state at the European Integration Committee Office in the government of Jerzy Buzek, responsible for adapting Polish law to Community law; architect of the concept of the “Grand European Law Commission” in the fourth term of the Sejm (the lower chamber of the Polish parliament); co-author of over 150 “adaptive” acts of parliament – 1999-2001.

Advisor at the Constitutional Tribunal's Office of Adjudication, responsible for analysing judgements of the European Court of Justice – from 1997 to 2000.

Faculty of Management of the University of Warsaw – junior and senior assistant lecturer at the Department of Labour Law and Social Policy – from 1980 to 1982, and then

Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Warsaw – lecturer at the Department of Administrative Economic Law and Comparative Law – lectures on public economic law and Community law (from 1999, unpaid leave in connection with holding a public function in government administration).

Higher School of Public Administration in Ostrołęka – from September 2004, professor; lectures on public economic law.

Head of Master's Supplementary Administrative Studies at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Warsaw – 1997-2005.

Arbitrator of the Court of Arbitration at the National Chamber of Commerce – from 2004.

Cooperation:

1. 1985-1987 – regular associate of the Centre for In-Service Training of Local Administration Management Staff in Warsaw, where I gave lectures on legal restrictions in the economy;
2. 1987-1989 – employed at the Institute of Administration and Management at the Office of the Council of Ministers, where I worked on problems related to economic procedures and the functioning of central administration;
3. 1992-1994 – permanent member of the Prime Minister's Government Team for the Reform of State Administration; and other posts.

Advisor:

1. from 1991 – advisor to the Government Representative for European Integration and Foreign Aid at the Office of the Council of Ministers, and from 1996 to 2000 – advisor to the minister at the Office of the European Integration Committee, responsible for problems associated with adapting public economic law to Community law.
2. 2000-2002 – advisor to the President of the Agricultural Market Agency, mainly responsible for legislation.

Expert:

1. from 1992 – member of the Group of Experts at the Agricultural Property Agency of the State Treasury; co-author of the concept of the Agricultural Property Reserve of the State Treasury;
2. from March 1994 – academic secretary of the Government Team of Experts appointed to draw up a schedule and directions of work with respect to adapting Polish law to EU law;
3. 1993-1997 – regular associate of the Sejm Commission for Local Government Matters; author of draft laws, such as on municipal resourcefulness, the health resort district system, and others.

ACADEMIC PLACEMENTS:

1. April 1987 – June 1987 – scholarship at the Faculty of Law of the University of Vienna;

2. August 1987 – March 1988 – academic placement at the Supreme Administrative Court;
3. October 1989 – October 1990 – scholarship of the Humboldt Foundation at the universities of Constance, Munich and Vienna;
4. March 1993 – scholarship of the University of Tübingen (Germany);
5. June – December 1993 – scholarship of the University of Vienna;
6. November – December 1994 – scholarship of the University of Constance (Germany), and others.