

Błażej Lepczyński

Błażej Lepczyński (born 1970) graduated from and finished his doctoral thesis at Gdańsk University's Management Faculty. He also completed post-graduate studies in company value management on financial markets.

Since 1995 he has been collaborating with the Gdańsk Institute for Market Economics. He is employed by Gdańsk University as an Adjunct Professor in the Banking Department.

He has authored and co-authored numerous scientific and journalistic publications and research projects related to banking and financial markets.