DIRECTORS' COMMENTARY TO THE FINANCIAL RESULTS OF THE PKO BANK POLSKI SA FOR THE THIRD QUARTER OF 2015

1. External environment

Macroeconomic environment

Macroeconomic factors influencing the national economy in the third quarter of 2015:

- Stabilization of the economic growth – On the basis of monthly indicators of economic activity for July-September it can be estimated that economic growth in the third quarter of 2015 stabilized at around the level recorded in the previous quarter (vs. 3.3% y/y in the second quarter of 2015). The flattening of the trajectory of economic growth probably stems from the slowdown in investment growth and the deterioration of the contribution of net exports, while consumption contributed positively to GDP growth,
- Improvement of the situation on the labour market – the registered unemployment rate amounted to 9.9% at the end of September (preliminary data of the Ministry of Labour and Social Policy) compared with 10.3% at the end of the second quarter of 2015, declining during the quarter stronger than seasonal patterns (ie. on -0,4 p.p. vs. -0,2 p.p. average in the last 5 years). The annual growth rate in salaries in the enterprise sector reached an average of 3.6% in the third quarter of 2015 compared to 3.1% in the second quarter of 2015, accompanied by dynamics of employee pensions and disability benefits in July-August 2015 at the level of 3.0% y/y (compared with 2.4% in the second quarter of 2015), as a relative stabilization of inflation contributed to a slight acceleration of growth in real income,
- Persistent deflation – the CPI inflation amounted to -0.8% y/y in September 2015, the same as in June, with a stable core inflation (0.2% y/y in September vs. 0.2% y/y in June) and the decline in oil prices from ~60 USD/bbl for ~50 USD/bbl. The external environment operates anti-inflationary – inflation in most European countries decreased during the third quarter of 2015 after having slight increase,
- Monetary policy without changes – At the October meeting of the Monetary Policy Council ('MPC', RPP – Rada Polityki Pieniężnej) left interest rates unchanged and maintained position that the monetary easing cycle has been completed. The Council stated in a press release that the increased uncertainty about the pace of inflation returning to the target, but at the same time has not changed moderately optimistic assessment of economic prospects.

Interest rate market

In the third quarter of 2015 interest rates in Poland have remained unchanged with the prospect of no change in the coming months. 3M WIBOR index remained at 1.73%, while 6M WIBOR at 1.81%. Treasury bonds were strongly correlated with core markets. This period was characterized by high volatility, from the beginning of July to the end of September a 10-year benchmark yields fell from 3.29% to 2.83% (46 b.p.), 5-year from 2.70% to 2.39% (31 b.p.) 2-year from 1.99% to 1.76% (23 b.p.). Weaker data from the real economy and the September Fed's decision to leave interest rates unchanged contributed to declines in US bond yields over 30 b.p. in sectors from 5 to 30 years. German Bunds moved at this time 11 b.p. respectively on 2-year bonds, 16 b.p. for the 5-year bonds, 23 b.p. on the 10-year bonds. Investors were supported by the information on the possibility of extending the European program of asset purchases (QE).

Foreign exchange market

The third quarter of 2015 was characterized by a high volatility both on the EUR/USD and the EUR/PLN market. The EUR/USD fluctuated between 1.08 and 1.17, whereas EUR/PLN between 4.09 and 4.26. The dynamics of changes on the EUR/USD market was determined first of all by changing expectations on faster increases in interest rates in USA and speculation about further expand the asset purchase program by the ECB. The impact of these two factors prevented more lasting strengthening of the euro against the dollar despite the fact that the Federal Reserve ultimately decided not to raise their interest rates in September and only suggested their willingness to increase before the end of 2015. In the case of the EUR/PLN potential positive effect of the lack of interest rate hikes in the USA in September was neutralised the negative impact the slowing economic activity in China on global investment trends against all currencies in emerging markets. As a result, if only in mid-July has expired positive impulse for the zloty due to the remoteness of the spectrum of Grexit, EUR/PLN rate began to gradually rise. This trend continued until the end of the quarter.

Stock market

In the third quarter of 2015 the Warsaw Stock Exchange remained under pressure from international events (Greece, China, migration crisis, the Fed) and unrolling a parliamentary election campaign. In the course of the demands raised were unfavorable for some industries (especially banking), which was the main reason for the decline in the WIG index by 6.5%. The summer months have brought no significant changes regarding the outlook for the Polish economy, although incoming data can be considered as slightly disappointing. The euro area grew in line with expectations. Incoming data pointed to stabilization of growth at around 1.5%. In July this Year, there was ending a dramatic negotiations with Greece. In September this Year, the crisis migration reached its climax. Exchange of shares behaved poorly. STOXX 600 index fell by almost 9% (the biggest quarterly decline since 4 years). They influenced primarily concerns about the impact of the weakness of the developing countries on economic growth in Europe. German stock exchange was rocked by scandal Volkswagen. USA stock market disappointed. Disappointing earnings, worries about the impact of possible interest rate hikes and turbulence in China influenced negatively on investor sentiment. The S&P500 fell by 7%. The market had been exciting about Fed meeting at which the decision was made, however, is not a first for almost 10 years hike. More than decision surprised justification, which indicated turbulence in emerging markets as one of the main reasons stay the course in monetary policy. Developing countries were at the center of investor interest, due to the deepening economic problems. On the stock market in Shanghai there was a sharp sell (the index fell by 29%).

The situation of the Polish banking sector

Financial results and performance indicators

It was significantly lower than that generated in the period January-August 2014 and was influenced mainly lower net interest income. High impact on the net profit of the banking sector realized over period 8 months of 2015 were one-off events, including additional profits realized by some banks from the sale of shares in subsidiaries operating in other segments of the financial market. Lending activity for individuals persons during the first 3 quarters of 2015 showed changes associated with the depreciation of the Polish currency. rate annual growth rate of deposits was higher than loans. At the end of September 2015, the volume of deposits increased to PLN 1 026 billion, while slowdown in the annual growth rate of deposits (9.3% y/y in December 2014)

The increase in deposits y/y was influenced mainly by the increase in deposits of individuals and the increase in deposits of enterprises and individual entrepreneurs, with a significant decrease in deposits of governmental and local government.

Despite significant reductions in interest rates on term deposits, deposits of individuals maintain a high growth rate y/y (10.2%, the same as at the end of December 2014), with the apparent high rate of growth of current deposits of individuals. The increase in individual deposits influenced the improving situation on the labor market and the relative uncertainty on the stock market and thus weak competition from other forms of saving). In the same period, the growth rate of corporate deposits stood at 11.4% (compared to 9.1% at the end of December 2014).

Changes in the loans and deposit market in the period January-September 2015 was influenced by the formation of a relationship between loans and deposits. The excess of loans over deposits increased to approx. PLN 44 billion, which resulted in an increase in the loans/deposits to 104.3%.

The Ukrainian market

Scale of the recession in Ukraine in the second quarter of 2015 decreased. Deeply negative GDP growth in the first quarter (-17.2% y/y) rebounded to -14.6% y/y. Data from third quarter about industrial production (average growth rate in the third quarter -8,1% y/y vs. -20.1% y/y in the second quarter) and retail sales (average growth in the third quarter -19.1% y/y vs. -26.5% in the second quarter) point to a further flattening of the recession. Slowdown in real salary growth and a slowdown in decline in imports, indicate a possible increase in domestic demand.

In the third quarter progressed consolidation of public finances (budget surplus at the end of August amounted to UAH 8.3 billion with deficit of UAH -33.7 billion in the same period 2014). Public debt at the end of August amounted to 72.8% of GDP and government guarantees increased by 88.2% of GDP. In August, the government of Ukraine signed an agreement with foreign creditors on which their claims were reduced by USD 15.5 billion (the debt write-off amounted to USD 3.6 billion), and the maturity date extended until 2019.

In the third quarter there were two reductions in the discount rate, the result of which its level fell from 33.0% at the end of June to 27.5% at the end of September. Digit growth in the money supply favored the decline in inflation rate, which in the third quarter averaged 53.3% y/y vs. 58.9% y/y in the second quarter. The high growth rate of price increase resulted primarily from increases in regulated prices (water, gas and electricity; the inflation rate: 146.4%).

According to National Bank of Ukraine (NBU) data, the number of banks that operate in Ukraine fell in September to 122 (compared with 143 in June and 163 in December). The trend has turned outflow of foreign capital, whose share in the capital of the sector increased to 37,9% from 27.5% in June. This was due to stabilization of the exchange rate of UAH against the dollar at the level of approx. 21.8.

The value of total assets in the Ukrainian banking sector in September was UAH 1 210 billion fell from UAH 1 300 billion in June. The ratio of capital to assets of banks increased during this period from 7.7% to 10.7%, which is equivalent to a decrease in leverage of banks.

Continued downward trend in the volume of foreign currency loans (UAH 549.3 billion at the end of September vs. UAH 571.7 billion at the end of June and UAH 687.0 billion in March), and the volume of total loans (respectively UAH 1 019.1 billion UAH 1 070.7 billion and UAH 1 012.9 billion). Visible was the continued decline in the deposit base (UAH 712.5 billion at the end of September vs. UAH 733.0 billion in June), which resulted primarily from the withdrawal of deposits by households (UAH -29.0 billion in the same period). As a result, the ratio of loans to deposits decreased from 146.1 in June to 143.0 in September (147.4 at the end of 2014).

Compared to the end of 2014 significantly increased rate of serviced loans (19.9% at the end of September vs. 13.5% in December 2014). In January-September ROA was stable (-4.1% vs. -4.1% in 2014) with decrease ROE (-39.4% vs. -30.5% in 2014).

- with an increase in income from derivative hedging instruments of PLN 81.8 million y/y, mainly as a result of the revaluation of transactions to lower market rates WIBOR and LIBOR CHF and the increase in the average volume of transactions to hedge accounting.

The decrease in interest expense of PLN 372.0 million ie. about 15.4% y/y was mainly the result of:

One of changes related to application of IFRIC 21 'Levies' (interpretation of IAS 37 'Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets'). Published by the International Financial Reporting Standards Board on 20 May 2013, it was approved for application in the European Union by Decree of the European Union Commission No. 634/2014 of 13 June 2014. The interpretation is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 17 June 2014, which means, in practice, an annual period beginning on 1 January 2015. Changes in accounting policies resulting from application of the interpretation for the first time are recognised retrospectively. IFRIC 21 determines how an entity should present, in its financial statements, the obligation to pay the levies imposed by government institutions (other than income tax liabilities). The main issue is when an entity should recognise a liability to pay the levy. IFRIC 21 sets out the criteria for the recognition of the liability. One of the criteria is the requirement of an obligation arising from past events (so-called the obligating event). The interpretation explains that an obligating event that give rise to the obligation to pay a levy, are relevant legislations that trigger the payment of the levy. In practice, for banks in Poland, IFRIC 21 applies to fees paid by banks to the Bank Guarantee Fund, that is, annual fee and prudential fee.

According to the Act of 14 December 1994 about the Bank Guarantee Fund (Journal of Law of 2014 item 1866 as amended), banks are obligated to pay for BGF:

- an obligatory annual fee amounting to the rate product up to 0.3% and the calculation base of the annual fee,
- prudential fee amounting to the rate product up to 0.2% and the calculation base of the annual fee.

The basis for the calculation of annual and prudential fee is an amount corresponding to 12.5 times of the sum of the capital requirements of the particular kinds of risk. Obligatory annual fee is tax deductible (within the meaning of the Corporate Income Tax Act). Means from payments of annual fee are allocated for the tasks of the Fund related with the cash guarantees. Prudential fee is not tax deductible (within the meaning of the Corporate Income Tax Act). Means for payments of the prudential fee are allocated for stability fund, which is a fund of BGF. The interest rates for the following years are set and presented to the entities covered by the guarantee scheme by BGF Fund Council no later than the end of the calendar year preceding the year in which the fee has to be paid. On 19 November 2014 the BGF Fund Council set interest rates of the payments to the Guarantee Fund for 2015 - 0.189% for obligatory annual fee and 0.05% for the prudential fee.

Due to the fact that, according to IFRIC 21 the event obligating to the payments for BGF is the fact of being covered by the guarantee system of BGF in the given year, since the first quarter of 2015 the Group is presenting the liability due to the fees mentioned above as at the moment when the obligating event occurs i.e. 1 January of the year while their cost is accounted during 12 months of the year, which is in accordance with the interpretation of Ministry of Finance of 11 February 2015 and with the accepted market practice in Poland.

On 25 September 2015 ESMA (European Securities and Markets Authority) published on its website an opinion on the applications of IFRS requirements with respect to the recognition of payments to the deposit guarantee scheme (2015/ESMA/1462). According to this opinion, the payments for the BGF should be recognized immediately in full, in the first interim profit and loss account. In connection with the position of the ESMA, the Financial Supervision Authority directed the question to the Ministry of Finance concerning the date of implementation by banks preparing financial statements with IAS and IFRS the requirements resulting from the ESMA opinion. Due to the fact that until the date of approval of the financial statements of the Bank and the Group for the 9 months ended 30 September 2015, there is no response from the Ministry of Finance, the Group abstained from change of approach to the BGF fees.

According to the above, in the period under review, the Group recognized PLN 333.6 million as an expense due to the BGF fee for 2015. If the total annual cost of the BGF fee was presented on a one off basis at the moment when the obligating moment occurs than the gross profit of the Group for this reporting period would have been lower by PLN 111.2 million (and would account for PLN 2 563 million) and the Group's profit gross for the third quarter of 2015 would have been higher by PLN 111.2 million (and would account for PLN 1 120 million).

In the third quarter of 2015, the impact of annual and prudential fee to BGF, depending on the adopted scenario, on the income statement is presented below:

Scenario - BGF fee settled in time (adopted in the Bank)	3rd quarter period from 01.07.2015 to 30.09.2015	3 quarters cumulative period from 01.01.2015 to 30.09.2015
Operation costs - BGF fee	(111 214)	(333 642)
- annual fee	(87 947)	(263 843)
- prudential fee	(23 267)	(69 800)
Income tax*	16 710	50 130
Effect on net profit	(94 504)	(283 512)

* The impact on tax expense (prudential fee is not deductible for tax purposes)

Scenario - BGF fee recognized as a one time cost in the I quarter of 2015	In PLN thousand
Operating costs - BGF fee	(444 856)
- annual fee	(351 790)
- prudential fee	(93 066)
Income tax*	66 840
Effect on net profit	(378 016)

* The impact on tax expense (prudential fee is not deductible for tax purposes)

The impact of deferred charges to BGF will be decreasing with time on a straight-line basis, and thus, at the end of the year no difference in this respect will not occur.

3. Explanation of differences regarding bancassurance recognition in comparison with previously published financial statements

The Bank has changed the presentation method concerning commission income and expense from insurance brokerage (bancassurance) since the second quarter of 2015. Until the methodology change, income and costs from insurance were presented individually, i.e. received and accrued remuneration from bancassurance was noted in commission income, while insurance products sales costs were accounted in commission expense. Since the change, income and cost from bancassurance are compensated and presented in net values i.e. the received and accrued remuneration from bancassurance reduced by the Bank's insurance products sales costs are recognized by the Bank in commission income.

The above mentioned changes are only presentational and have no impact on the financial results presented in the financial statements.

The table below presents the impact of the changes in the presentation of comparative data.

4. The takeover of the Spółdzielcza Kasa Oszczędnościowo-Kredytowa Wesola in Myslowice by PKO Bank Polski SA on 1 August 2015.

On 18 June 2015, PKO Bank Polski SA agreed to participate in the restructuring of the Spółdzielcza Kasa Oszczędnościowo-Kredytowa Wesola in Myslowice („SKOK Wesola” or „Credit Union”). On this basis, also on 18 June 2015 Polish Financial Supervision Authority (PFSA) has decided about the takeover of the SKOK Wesola by the Bank. This decision has been taken in accordance with article 74c clause 4 of the Act of 5 November 2009 on Credit Unions (the "Act on Credit Unions"). According to this article, if it impossible to take over the credit union by the other union, PFSA taking into account the need to safeguard financial market stability and safety of funds held on accounts of the union, can decide whether to accept the takeover of the credit union or the takeover of some property rights or union's obligations, by a domestic bank with its consent, or to liquidate the credit union. According to the decision of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, since 19 June 2015 the management of property of SKOK Wesola has been taken over by the Management Board of PKO Bank Polski SA, and 1 August 2015 has been set as the date of the takeover of SKOK Wesola by PKO Bank Polski SA. According to the PFSA decision, the credit union conducted activities and offered services to its members in the full current range, until the date of the takeover.

According to the reached agreement and applicable regulations, the support from the Bank Guarantee Fund (BGF) is expected in the process of restructuring of SKOK Wesola in the form of guarantees to cover losses and grant subsidies for the differences between the value of taken over property rights and union's obligations due to guaranteed funds held on accounts of SKOK Wesola.

SKOK Wesola has operated since 1993. The activities of the taken over Credit Union were among others, to raise funds and implement a program of regular savings, to grant loans to its members and to carry out on their behalf financial settlements.

At the date of publication of these financial statements, there have been accomplished preliminary, provisional valuation of settlement of the takeover of the SKOK Wesola. SKOK Wesola's financial data at the takeover date, which are the basis of this provisional valuation of settlement, derive from SKOK Wesola's financial statements prepared as at 31 July 2015 and are audited by the entity authorized to audit financial statements. According to this financial statements the value of assets and liabilities as at 31 July 2015 amounted to PLN 303.6 million and PLN 623.6 million respectively. The Group continued the process of estimating the fair value at the date of takeover of selected assets and liabilities of SKOK Wesola. At this day the final amount of the grant affecting the settlement of the acquisition remains unknown. The value of the grant BGF is the subject of ongoing negotiations.

In view of the above, the final allocation may differ from preliminary settlement both in terms of grants received and the fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed.

In 2015 KREDOBANK SA conducted proceeding related to legal claim described below with the tax authority in Ukraine.

- The legal claim concerns the results of tax audit, which covered the period from 1 April 2011 to 30 September 2012. Legal claims mainly concern recognition of the costs related to the transaction of selling loans in the period covered by the inspection as tax deductible expenses, the adequacy of recognition of impairment allowances on loans, the correctness of the settlement of VAT on property sales and withholding tax for the payment of fees for services.

The value of disputed claims amounted to UAH 877 thousand (PLN 156 thousand¹), and the amount of reducing tax loss from previous years - UAH 626 282 thousand (PLN 111 478 thousand). In February 2013, KREDOBANK SA paid a part of the legal claims in the total amount of UAH 439 thousand (PLN 78 thousand). This value is still included in subsequent appeal claims.

KREDOBANK SA appealed against the above-mentioned tax decision consecutive to the Regional State Tax Service and The Ministry of Revenue and Duties of Ukraine, and these appeals were rejected.

On 2 August 2013, KREDOBANK SA filed a claim against the results of the inspection and applying for annulling the above-mentioned tax decision. On 5 November 2013 the court of first instance issued a favourable verdict for KREDOBANK SA, which accepted a position of the Company, except the correctness of calculation of tax depreciation on tangible fixed assets in the total amount of UAH 336 thousand (PLN 60 thousand).

On 26 November 2013, the tax authority appealed to the court of second instance. On 2 April 2014 the court of appeal upheld the decision of the court of first instance favourable for KREDOBANK SA. On 15 April 2014 the tax authority filed a motion for cassation of this judgement to the Higher Administrative Court.

On 10 February 2015 Higher Administrative Court issued a favourable verdict for KREDOBANK SA, maintaining above-mentioned decisions of the court of the first and second instance. The judgement is legally valid. There is possible to appeal to the tax authority to Supreme Court of Ukraine.

2. The legal claims regard the results of tax audit of liquidation of KREDOBANK SA's central branch, which covered March and April 2015. Legal claims concern the operation of redemption of loans - audit revealed irregularities regarding the scope and form of information about the redemption of the loan, provided by KREDOBANK for the part of customers (individuals). As a consequence of irregularities the supervision body counted KREDOBANK SA arrears of personal income tax.

KREDOBANK SA had filed an appeal, to the Interregional Department of the State Tax Service, which was rejected, and the State Tax Service, on 8 October 2015, published a decision declaring that the position of KREDOBANK SA, applied only to the extent factor to calculate the amount of tax.

As a result of the above-mentioned decision, the amount of tax to be paid has been reduced to UAH 366 thousand (PLN 65 thousand) and fines up to UAH 92 thousand (PLN 16 thousand). Further possible variants of conduct are analyzed.

The most significant legal claims of PKO Bank Polski SA Group are described below:

a) Unfair competition proceeding

Bank The Bank is a party to proceeding initiated by President of the Competition and Consumer Protection Office (Urząd Ochrony Konkurencji i Konsumentów - UOKiK) on the basis of a decision dated 23 April 2001 upon the request of the Polish Trade and Distribution Organisation – Employers' association (Polska Organizacja Handlu i Dystrybucji - Związek Pracodawców) against the operators of the Visa and Europay payment systems and the banks issuing Visa and Europay/Eurocard/Mastercard banking cards. The claims under these proceedings relate to the use of practices limiting competition on the market of banking card payments in Poland, consisting of applying pre-agreed 'interchange' fees for transactions made using mentioned above cards as well as limiting access to this market by external entities. On 29 December 2006, UOKiK decided that the practices, consisting of joint establishment of 'interchange' fee, did limit market competition and ordered that any such practices should be discontinued, and imposed a fine on, among others, PKO Bank Polski SA, in the amount of PLN 16 597 thousand.

The Bank appealed against the decision of the President of UOKiK to Court for the Competition and Consumer Protection (Sąd Ochrony Konkurencji i Konsumentów - SOKiK). On 20 December 2011 a hearing was held during which no factual resolution of the appeals was reached. The SOKiK obligated MasterCard to submit explanations concerning the issue however on 8 May 2012, SOKiK suspended proceedings until the final conclusion of proceedings before the European Union Court in the case MasterCard against the European Commission. On 24 May 2012, the European Union Court upheld the decision of the European Commission banning multilaterally agreed 'interchange' fees applied by MasterCard. On 28 May 2012 the participant to the proceedings, Visa Europe Ltd, and on 29 May 2012 the plaintiffs' attorney, including PKO Bank Polski SA, filed a complaint against the decision of SOKiK dated 8 May 2012. In August 2012, the European Court of Justice received the appeal of MasterCard against the verdict of the EU Court of 24 May 2012 rejecting the appeal of mentioned above. On 25 October 2012, the Court of Appeal in Warsaw changed the decision of 8 May 2012 and dismissed the motion of MasterCard for suspending the proceedings. In January 2013 the Bank's attorney received the court's decision in this case and in February 2013, court files were transferred to the court of first instance. Depending on the category of classification of financial assets and liabilities to the hierarchy, different methods of fair value valuation are used, detailed description of which was presented in the annual consolidated financial statements for the year 2014.

The Group classified shares of the entity (Fund) not listed on WSE, which are valued with internal valuation models to the level 3. The fair value of these securities is determined based on the net asset value of the fund, i.e. the fair value of investment projects (the companies) in the fund, which are subject to semi-annual review or examination by the registered auditor. If the Group applied the parameter values that are unobservable extremes of the range of possible values, the fair value of equity financial instruments could at 30 September 2015 be increased by PLN 9 640 thousand or decreased by PLN 9 640 thousand.

In the period from 1 January to 30 September 2015, there were no transfers between levels in the fair value hierarchy used in measuring financial instruments at fair value.

The tables below presents a reconciliation during the periods of measurement, from 1 January 2015 to 30 September 2015 and from 1 January 2014 to 31 December 2014, respectively, of fair value at level 3 of fair value hierarchy:

Interest rate risk

As at 30 September 2015 and 31 December 2014, the exposure of the PKO Bank Polski SA Group to the interest rate risk comprised mainly of the exposure of the Bank. Interest rate risk generated by the Group entities did not have a significant effect on the interest rate risk of the entire Group and therefore did not significantly affect its risk profile.

VaR of the Bank and stress-tests analysis of the Group's exposure to the interest rate risk are presented in the following table:

Name of sensitivity measure	30.09.2015	31.12.2014
VaR for a 10-day time horizon with a confidence level of 99% threshold (in PLN thousand)*	162 443	282 268
Parallel movement of interest rate curves by 200 b.p. (in PLN thousand) (stress-test)	2 030 525	2 380 354

* Due to the nature of the activities carried out by the other Group entities generating significant interest rate risk as well as a the specific nature of the market on which they operate, the Group does not calculate consolidated VaR. These companies apply their own risk measures in the interest rate risk management. KREDOBANK SA uses the 10-day interest rate VaR for the main currencies, which amounted to approx. PLN 10 308 thousand as at 30 September 2015 and PLN 9 480 thousand as at 31 December 2014.

 The table presents the absolute value of the most adverse stress-test of the scenarios: change of interest rate curves in particular currencies by 200 b.p. up and by 200 b.p. down.

As at 30 September 2015 the Bank's interest rate VaR for a 10-day time horizon (10-day VaR, 99%) amounted to PLN 162 443 thousand, which accounted for approximately 0.6% of the Bank's own funds. As at 31 December 2014 VaR for the Bank amounted to PLN 282 268 thousand, which accounted for approximately 1.15% of the Bank's own funds.

Currency risk

VaR of the Bank and stress-testing of the Group's exposure to currency risk are stated cumulatively for all currencies in the table below:

Name of sensitivity measure	30.09.2015	31.12.2014
VaR for a 10-day time horizon with a confidence level of 99% threshold (in PLN thousand)*	12 286	6 230
Change in CUR/PLN by 20% (in PLN thousand) (stress-test)	23 781	28 609

* Due to the nature of the activities carried out by the other Group entities generating significant currency risk as well as the specific nature of the market on which they operate, the Bank does not calculate consolidated VaR. These companies apply their own risk measures in the currency risk management. KREDOBANK SA uses the 10-day VaR, which amounted to approx. PLN 7 754 thousand as at 30 September 2015 and approx. PLN 3 664 thousand as at 31 December 2014.

 The table presents the absolute value of the most adverse stress-test of the scenarios: PLN appreciation by 20% and PLN depreciation by 20%.

The volume of currency positions is a key factor determining the level of currency risk on which the Group is exposed (except for volatility of foreign exchange rates). The level of currency positions is determined by all foreign currency transactions, which are concluded by the Group, both in the statement of financial position and off-balance sheet transactions. The Bank's exposure to currency risk is low (with reference to own funds, 99% VaR for a 10-day time horizon for the Bank's currency position as at 30 September 2015 amounted to ca. 0,05%).

43. Capital adequacy

The fundamental regulation applicable in the capital adequacy assessment process as at 30 September 2015 and as at 31 December 2014 is the Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council as of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms, amending the Regulation (EU) No. 648/2012, hereinafter called 'CRR Regulation'. The CRR Regulation constitutes a part of so-called CRD IV/CRR package, which apart from the Regulation comprises CRD IV Directive - Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council as of 26 June 2013 on access to the activity of credit institutions and the prudential supervision of credit institutions and investment firms, amending Directive 2002/87/EC and repealing Directives 2006/48/EC and 2006/49/EC (hereinafter called 'CRD Directive'). In contrast to the CRR Regulation which is directly applicable, the CRD had to be transposed into national law.

The Act on macro-prudential oversight of the financial system and crisis management in the financial system was enacted on 5 August 2015, which comes into force on 1 November 2015. The Act implements the recommendations of the European Systemic Risk Council on macro-prudential mandate of national authorities and the CRD and also adjusts the Polish law to the Regulation of the CRR. The Act, among others, establishes a Financial Stability Committee and a formal framework for macro-prudential policy, introduces additional capital requirements for credit institutions and investment firms (hedged buffer, countercyclical capital buffer, systemic risk buffer, systemically important institutions buffer and requirements for their validity's buffer). The Act also introduced a number of changes, among others, Banking Law's Act, Bank Guarantee Fund's Act of 14 December 1994, National Polish Bank's Act of 29 August 1997, Supervision of the capital market's Act of 29 July 2005, trading in Financial Instruments' Act of 29 July 2005, Supervision of the financial market's Act of 21 July 2006.

In accordance with the CRR Regulation for the purposes of capital adequacy a prudential consolidation is applied, which unlike the consolidation consistent with International Financial Reporting Standards, comprises Bank's subsidiaries being institutions and financial institutions. Nonfinancial and insurance entities are excluded from prudential consolidation.

For the purpose of prudential consolidation the Group comprises: PKO Bank Polski SA, PKO Leasing SA Group, PKO BP BANKOWY PTE SA, PKO Towarzystwo Funduszy Inwestycyjnych SA, KREDOBANK SA Group, PKO Finance AB, Finansowa Kompania 'Prywatne Inwestycje' Sp. z o.o. and PKO Bank Hipoteczny SA.

As at 30 September 2015 capital adequacy measures were calculated in accordance with the provisions of the CRR Regulation, including i.a. as regards the scope of consolidation taking into account known to the Bank and planned to implement national options. As at 30 September 2015 the Bank meets requirements relating to capital adequacy measures defined within the CRR Regulation.

- in respect of credit risk – using the standardised method,
- in respect of operational risk for the Bank – using the advanced measurement approach (AMA), and for the Group entities - the basic index approach (BIA),
- in respect of position risk (market) – using basic methods.

The total requirements in respect of own funds comprises the sum of the capital requirements for:

- 1) credit risk, including credit risk instruments from banking book, counterparty credit risk,
- 2) market risk,
- 3) risk of credit valuation adjustment (CVA),
- 4) settlement and delivery risk,
- 5) operational risk,
- 6) exceeding the large exposure limit.

The table below presents the Group's exposure types of risk. Data as at 30 September 2015 and at 31 December 2014 was calculated pursuant to the CRR Regulation, which is mentioned above.

In the third quarter of 2015, the Bank realized actions leading to decrease risk weighted assets. The most significant source of taken optimization was an increase in the quality of data (among others, regarding in retail segment exposure all of the SME clients, who met criteria of segmentation) and review of off-balance sheet liabilities, including verification of assigned risk weights of the product.

The Group calculates requirements as regard own funds in respect of credit risk according to the following formulas:

- in case of statement of financial position items – a product of a carrying amount, a risk weight of the exposure calculated according to the standardised method of the requirement as regards own funds in respect of credit risk and 8% (considering recognised collaterals),
- in case of off-balance sheet liabilities granted – a product of nominal value of liability (considering value of provisions for the liability), a risk weight of the product, a risk weight of off-balance sheet exposure calculated according to the standardised method of requirement as regards own funds in respect of credit risk and 8% (considering recognised collaterals),

Internal capital (Pillar II)

As at 30 September 2015, The Group calculates internal capital in accordance with:

- CRR Regulation,
- CRD Directive,
- Resolution No. 258/2011 of PESA of 4 October 2011 on detailed principles for functioning of risk management system and internal control system and detailed terms of estimating internal capital by banks and reviewing the process of estimating and maintaining internal capital and the principles for determining the variable salary components policy for person holding managerial positions in the Bank.

Internal capital is the amount of estimated capital that is necessary to cover all of the identified significant risks characteristics of the Group's activities and the effect of changes in the business environment, taking account of the anticipated risk level.

The internal capital in the PKO Bank Polski SA Group is calculated to cover each of the significant risk types:

- credit risk (including default risk, concentration risk, residual risk and dilution risk),
- currency risk,
- interest rate risk,
- liquidity risk,
- operational risk,,
- business risk (taking into consideration strategic risk).

Materialisation of macroeconomic changes risk, model risk, capital risk, compliance risk and reputation risk is reflected in the estimates of internal capital for covering the types of risk: credit, interest rate, currency, liquidity, operational and business.

The Bank regularly monitors the significance of the individual risk types relating to the activity of the Bank and other Group subsidiaries.

The internal capital for covering the individual risk types is determined using the methods specified in the internal regulations. In the event of performing internal capital estimates based on statistical models, the annual forecast horizon and a 99.9% confidence level are adopted. The total internal capital of each entity of the Group is the sum of internal capital necessary to cover all of the significant risks for the entity. The total internal capital of the Group is the sum of internal capital of the Bank and all Group entities. The correlation ratio between particular types of risk and particular Group entities used in the internal capital calculation is equal to 1.

As at 30 September 2015, the relation of the Group's own funds to its internal capital remained on a level exceeding both the threshold set by the law and the Group's internal limits.

In the first quarter of 2015, PKO Bank Polski S.A. redeemed USD 8 250 thousand loan granted to Finansowa Kompania „Prywatne Inwestycje” Sp. z o.o. and USD 8 284 thousand loan provided for company Finansowa Kompania „Idea Kapital” Sp. z o.o. and interest due on mentioned above loans (i.e. the value of loans remained to be repaid). Redemptions were carried out at the request of mentioned above companies, due to the economic situation of Ukraine, including in particular a progressive devaluation of the hryvnia resulting in the Companies' inability to obtain revenues from recoveries of receivables in UAH at the level required to repay the loans received from the Bank, and limits of the National Bank of Ukraine in terms of exchange and transfer of currency abroad.
