

Grzegorz Chłopek

Grzegorz Chłopek graduated from the Department of Electronics and Information Technology of the Warsaw University of Technology. He is a CFA charterholder and has a securities broker's licence.

He started his professional career in 1994; from the very outset he connected it with the capital market. Until 1998 he was employed with the Brokerage Office of Bank Gdański, Commercial Union Towarzystwo Ubezpieczeń na Życie (Polska) (life insurer) and the American Bank in Poland. From December 1998, for more than 21 years, he pursued his professional career with Nationale-Nederlanden Powszechnie Towarzystwo Emerytalne (the universal pension fund management company managing the assets of the largest open pension fund in Poland). In 2004 he was appointed member of the Company's Management Board and as of 2012 he held the function of Chairman of the Management Board. In the area of asset management, he was at first responsible for managing interest rate market instruments and then for the entire investment portfolio, which exceeded PLN 72 billion in 2013. He was also responsible for corporate governance over the stock portfolio, which exceeded 5% of the total market capitalization of all Polish companies listed on the WSE. Since June 2020 he has been employed with iWealth Management as the Managing Director, and he is responsible for developing collaboration with affluent Customers and institutions, as well as for supporting free-of-charge investment advisory services for the firm's Customers.

He has wide experience in managing a large financial institution, implementing new products in the financial sector, corporate governance over listed companies, analysis of financial statements and capital market instruments. He is an experienced expert in the following sectors: pension, investment and insurance.
